

The Links at the Divi will host the Chivas Golf Challenge

“The Divine Nine” at the Divi will be the venue for the 2006 Chivas Regal Golf Challenge as announced by the management of Swint Trading, agents for Chivas Regal in Aruba and Links head pro Adam Williamson on Friday January 13.

Gerber Tilma, Managing Director of Swint, and Ludwig Estrada, Brand Manager joined Tabitha Fecunda and Adam Williamson of The Links at the first hole on the lush green fairways to inform the press of the fabulous prizes that await the three man team to take first place in this 18 hole tournament.

Sixty-three participants will begin with a shotgun start at 12:30 PM on Saturday, February 4th. This tournament is for native islanders only and a handicap of twenty-five or lower is a prerequisite.

The sponsors of this tournament, Chivas Regal, the world’s first established blended Scotch whiskey is offering the fabulous first prize of an all expense paid trip for the three man winning team to participate in the 2006 Chivas Regal Premier Golf Classic to be held at the Garra de Leon Golf Course in Costa Rica March 11th to 15th.

The distributors of the Chivas Regal 12-year-old Scotch Whiskey, the whiskey of the British Royalty, are very excited about the upcoming tournament. They agree that both the beautiful course of The Links at the Divi and the Garra de Leon, designed by Robert Trent Jones II, in Costa Rica, will provide exciting tournament play for all contenders.

Aside from the winning trip to the Chivas Regal Classic 2006, there will be excellent prizes for the second and third place teams, plus awards for Closest to the Pin and Longest Drives. Hints that these prizes will likely include bottles of Chivas Regal 12, or some of the other fine blended whiskeys such as Chivas Highland Jewel, Chivas Manhattan and Chivas Soho should be plenty of incentive for the sixty-three participants in the tournament to strive for the best scores.

Cost of registration is $100 per team member, and can be done at the Pro Shop of the Links at the Divi or by calling telephone # 581-GOLF or Adam Williamson at 735-5419 for more information.
